KLING STUBBINS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KlingStubbins appoints new Principal, Director of Interiors for Cambridge office Bruce Rhoades, IIDA, LEED® AP joins integrated design firm

CAMBRIDGE, MA – November 4, 2008 – KlingStubbins is pleased to announce that Bruce Rhoades, IIDA, LEED® AP has joined the Cambridge, MA office as the Director of Interiors. His responsibilities will include providing interior design leadership, design expertise, and pursuing opportunities to develop new business and expand the firm's client base.

Mr. Rhoades brings more than 20 years of experience to KlingStubbins' interior design team. Some of his most notable projects include the national headquarters of American Public Television, the student center classrooms of MIT's Stata Center, and office renovations at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. Additional experience includes corporate office space for clients such as Fidelity, the Bank of New York, General Electric, and First Marblehead Corporation, plus the design of multiple exhibits at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

As a past President of IIDA's New England chapter, Mr. Rhoades has been actively involved in Boston's arts & design community and has participated in many fund-raising events through the years for Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS (DIFFA), Community Servings, AIDS Action Committee, the Boys and Girls Clubs, and the Longy School of Music at Boston's Symphony Hall.

Mr. Rhoades holds a Master of Science in Interior Design from the University of Massachusetts Amherst and a Bachelor of Science with Distinction in Graphic Design from San Diego State University. He has received additional education at American College in Paris, UCLA, and the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, CA.

"Bruce is an enormously talented designer, and we are delighted to have him join the KlingStubbins team," says Joseph Castner, AIA, RIBA, LEED® AP, Managing Director of KlingStubbins in Cambridge. "He brings a wealth of experience and is highly admired and respected not only by clients but in the community at large."

"Bruce brings a great deal of talent to the Cambridge Interiors studio, and we're excited to have him with us" says Kimberly Williams, National Director of Interiors for KlingStubbins.
