KlingStubbins' Multiple Interior Award Wins Dot the Map Projects in Boston and Philadelphia receive recognition from IIDA

BOSTON and PHILADELPHIA – July 20, 2007 – The Interiors practice of KlingStubbins proves that design excellence can not only be achieved more than one project at a time, but also more than one region at a time. The firm was the recent recipient of two International Interior Design Association (IIDA) Awards recognizing projects in both Boston and the Philadelphia suburbs. This also marks the second year in a row that IIDA Philadelphia City Center has honored KlingStubbins in the “Best of Corporate” category.

The Interiors design team of KlingStubbins' Philadelphia office received the “Best of Corporate” Award from IIDA's Philadelphia City Center Chapter for their design of real estate developer Brandywine Realty Trust's corporate headquarters in Radnor, PA. Brandywine charged KlingStubbins' with consolidating their operations under one roof and developing a completely different workplace, one infused with spaces for collaboration, team-building, and creative work. The result reinforces the vitality and creative energies of the thriving company.

KlingStubbins' Boston-based Interiors team was recognized with a “Best Office Under 20,000 SF” Award from IIDA's New England Chapter. Situated within a 19th century brick-and-beam warehouse structure in Boston's developing Seaport District, KlingStubbins' office fitout for BT Radianz, a global company and subsidiary of British Telephone, creates a collegial, team-driven atmosphere while remaining true to their European parent company standards. The design reflects the image of a dynamic, high-tech, and fast forward thinking organization.

“We are particularly excited about these wins. They illustrate KlingStubbins' commitment to design excellence and our ability to achieve it across multiple offices,” remarked KlingStubbins' National Director of Interiors, Kimberly R. Williams. “With the talent our Interiors practice possesses, we will continue to raise the bar for clients and ourselves.”
